UNIVERSITY of VIRGINIA School of Nursing | ELEANOR CROWDER BJORING CENTER for NURSING HISTORICAL INQUIRY

Helpful links during your stay in Charlottesville

AT UVA:
- Visitor map of UVA

- Descendants of enslaved communities at UVA
  - Self-guided tour of enslaved African Americans

- UVA Edgar Shannon Library (formerly Alderman Library; beautifully renovated)

- UVA Special Collections Library

- Current UVA Library Exhibits

- UVA Fralin Art Museum (free)

IN THE AREA:
- Charlottesville & Albemarle Visitors Bureau

- Jefferson School African American Heritage Center (tickets required)

- James Monroe's Highland (tickets required)

- Thomas Jefferson's Monticello (tickets required)

- Historical tours of downtown Charlottesville (fees vary)

GETTING AROUND TOWN:
- Charlottesville Area Transit (aka the CAT)
  Free bus and trolley service connects downtown Charlottesville with UVA, every 15-30 minutes depending on weekday/weekend schedule. Maps and routes.

GOOD RESTAURANTS NEAR THE CONFERENCE HOTEL:
  Maya Restaurant, 633 W. Main St.
  The Ridley, 1106 W. Main St.
  Orzo Kitchen and Wine Bar, 416 W. Main St.
  Farm Bell Kitchen, 1209 W. Main St. Breakfast & lunch only.